FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ARMEL AWARDED TENURE AT EASTERN

CHARLESTON, IL-Don Armel, assistant professor of technology at Eastern Illinois University, has been awarded tenure effective Fall Semester 1993.

Tenure is a status awarded by the Board of Governors Universities upon the positive recommendation of the university president following an extensive evaluation process. It is a relationship of continuing commitment between the university and the employee, benefiting both.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places priority on teaching excellence for a high quality student body in a residential setting and offers faculty a wide range of research and public service activities.

Armel earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in vocational education from Indiana State University in 1978 and 1980, respectively. He is currently pursuing his doctorate in instructional technology from Southern Illinois University. Prior to coming to Eastern, he served as a graphic arts instructor at Metamora High School from 1980-1984.
